

Special Auction Item

Schull Holiday Cottage in Ireland

This beautiful Cottage is situated in Schull Harbour in West Cork, Ireland. The Cottage is an easy one-half mile walk from the lovely village of Schull. Many fabulous walking paths can be found near the Cottage and around the village. Schull is home to a Planetarium and sailing school and has a vast assortment of water activities. Two golf courses are within 15 miles of Schull.

This lovely two-story Cottage in Ireland has been donated for auction (courtesy of member Mary Brady and her daughter, Ann). This is for a one week stay between February 1, 2020 and June 13, 2020 (based on availability) and is generally available for 7 nights (Saturday to Saturday). Bidding starts at $500 (great accommodations starting at only $72/night folks)!

This self-catering Cottage has fantastic views of the Harbour from the living room, kitchen/dining area and master bedroom. It sleeps six and has three bedrooms and two full bathrooms (one upstairs and one downstairs). The kitchen is fully equipped and has an oven, stove, microwave, refrigerator and dishwasher. The Cottage also has a washer and dryer, fireplace and satellite tv and broadband wifi.

